PREFACE.

Attention was first called to the importance of ascertaining the number and condition of the Llandaff Diocesan and Parochial Records within the Diocese, at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Conference, by the Rev. Canon Roberts, now Dean of Bangor. It was decided to request the Conference to appoint a Special Committee for this work, which was accordingly constituted on the 25th October, 1901, and met for the first time on Wednesday, the 9th May, 1902.

Reports dealing with the progress of the work were presented to the Conferences of 1902, 1903, and 1904, during which time the constitution of the Committee underwent some changes.

Enquiry into the Parochial Records was commenced by the issue of a letter signed by the Chairman on behalf of the Committee, to the Incumbents of the Parishes that existed prior to 1836 (a copy of the letter appears as Appendix I.). The year 1836 was adopted as the limit, as subsequent to it, the Civil Registration Act came into operation. The names of such Parishes were ascertained by reference to the Census Report made in 1831, which contained a list of the Registers throughout England and Wales then existing.

The letter, as will be seen, foreshadowed a much wider sphere of enquiry than was subsequently undertaken. The work was eventually restricted, as the Committee realized that they were unable usefully to carry out it, and that much of it should more properly devolve upon individual historians.

A blank form, to be filled by the Incumbents, accompanied the letter, a copy forms Appendix II.

The appeal was readily, in most cases, responded to during the years 1902, 1903, and 1904, and eventually the desired information was received from every Parish in the Diocese with the exception of Merthyr Tydfil, although in a few cases it was supplied through the courtesy of Col. Bradney when it seemed impossible to obtain it otherwise.

The original returns are bound in two volumes, viz. :—those for the Archdeaconry of Llandaff and those for the Archdeaconry of Monmouth, and will be deposited in the Diocesan Registry. The Digest herein published contains the particulars of the original returns.

A Table of the Bishops' Transcripts follows the Digest of Parish Registers, compiled from the originals by Messrs. G. E. Halliday and W. Godfrey, and the Rev. Lancelot Lewis.

This is followed by a descriptive inventory of the Act Books of the Bishops of Llandaff, now in the custody of the Bishop's Registrar, and of the Act Books of the Dean and Chapter in that of the Chapter Clerk, both of which were examined and reported upon by the Rev. C. A. H. Green.

Although the Committee feel sure that the result of this enquiry will be of much value as a Calendar or Index, they venture to express their earnest hope, that at no distant date, the first four volumes preserved in the Diocesan Registry, and the first volume of the Acts of the Chapter of Llandaff Cathedral will be printed "in extenso et verbatim." It seems most undesirable that the primary Authorities for the History of the Diocese of Llandaff for the period 1575 to 1724 should be locked up in single copies of perishable material.

In conclusion, the Committee desire to express their gratitude to Mr. E. A. Fry, Hon. Sec. to the Committee for a similar research in the Diocese of Worcester, for placing his great experience at their service, and for his permission to reprint Appendix III.

They tender their acknowledgment of the courtesy shewn by the Incumbents of the Parishes who supplied the desired information, and especially to the Very Rev. the Dean of Llandaff, for permission granted, and to the Chapter Clerk, and the Bishop's Registrar, for facilities afforded for the examinations of the documents in their custody.

APPENDIX I.

THE PRIORY, USK,
MONMOUTHSHIRE,
June 9th, 1902.

DEAR SIR,

A Committee having been appointed by the Llandaff Diocesan Conference to investigate and report on Diocesan and Parochial Records, you are requested to be good enough to fill up the enclosed form, and sign it, and return the same as soon as you conveniently can to Mr. ROBERT RICKARDS, in the envelope enclosed.

Should you find any difficulty in making out the return, will you kindly communicate with the above-named, who will be happy to assist you by correspondence or to arrange a personal visit by one of the Committee.

The Committee will also feel grateful for any information you can supply relating to your Parish, which would be useful to the future historian, or serviceable in the matter of Church Defence under the following heads :—

(1) Any records of efforts that have been made in the cause of education, of building, endowing and improving Churches, brought down to the present day.
(2) Old Diaries in MS. of former Incumbents, and any other MSS. of historic value.
(3) Printed parochial histories.
(4) Churchwarden's accounts.
(5) Oral traditions of old parochial customs.
(6) Well attested facts as to the character and work of the Clergy in the 18th and early part of the 19th centuries.
(7) Pre-Reformation customs and relics.

It is hoped to find a centre in the Diocese for storing all literature on the subject and for general reference.

Counting on your kind co-operation.

I am, dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,
ROBERT RICKARDS,
Chairman of the Committee.

Note on cover of Vol. I. :—

This Register was bought by William Landen, Churchwarden of the Town of Usk, 1742. There was no Register Book belonging to this Parish from the year 1717 to this present year, 1742. The Births, Deaths, and Marriages in the interval were taken down upon loose papers and yearly returned to the Surrogate and Register at the Chancellor's Visitation, so that recourse must be had to the Register's office at Llandaff from the year 1717 to 1742.

Signed JOHN PERROT,
Vicar.

INVENTORY

OF THE

Act Books of the Bishops of Llandaff since 1660.

ACT BOOKS OF THE BISHOPS OF LLANDAFF.

The Records preserved in the Diocesan Registry consist of nineteen Books in all. The oldest begins with an entry dated December, 1660, the latest is the Act Book of the late Bishop.

They are being carefully kept and handled, and (with the exception of one Book) numbered in, approximately, chronological order, by means of a small piece of paper gummed to their covers.

The unnumbered Book is bound in vellum, and is small quarto. It begins in 1707, and contains subscriptions by Doctors of Medicine, Schoolmasters, Chancellors, Surrogates, Parish Clerks, &c., there are many blank leaves, and it seems to have been disused for years, the last entry being in 1845.

Book I. is bound in vellum, and covers the period December 15th, 1660, to June 25th, 1678. The writing is quite clear, but being in Latin, and employing many contractions, it requires a little practice to read readily. It contains entries of institutions, ordinations, Judicial processes before the Bishop, and a few Caveats, it is therefore an "Act Book."

Book II. Bound in vellum; writing in English and Latin. It is a very interesting document, because it contains the autograph writing and signatures of each person admitted to a cure. It contains subscriptions from 1663–1678, and is therefore a "Subscription Book."

Book III. Bound in vellum; entries in Latin for the most part. It covers the period 1679–1708, and serves a double purpose. At one end there are Episcopal Acts (in continuation of Book I.), in Latin, and easy to read, until 1706; at the other end of the Book are subscriptions, in 1706, the Bishop with his own hand adds after each subscription "fiat collatio, &c."

Book IV. Bound in vellum; the entries are mostly in Latin, and are in good writing, but a little strange to read at first. This book also serves the double purpose of an "Act Book" and "Subscription Book," and covers the period 1709–1724.

There are apparently no Books for the Episcopate of Robert Clavering, Bishop 1725–1729.

Book V. Bound in green vellum. Entries in English. Serving as "Act Book" and "Subscription Book," it covers the period 1729–1738.

There are apparently no Books for the Episcopate of Mathias Mawson, 1739.

Book VI. Bound in vellum, contains subscriptions from 1741–1765.

Book VII. Bound in vellum, contains subscriptions from 1762–1783.

Book VIII. Bound in vellum, contains subscriptions from April, 1755, to March, 1794.

Book IX. Bound in vellum, contains subscriptions from 1784–1802.

The four Books last mentioned are partially concurrent, which may be due to the Bishop's non-residence, and the frequent employment of a Commissary.

Book VIIIa. is in a brown paper cover, and records institutions by Commission 1782–1790, during the Episcopate of Bishop Watson.

Book X. Bound in half leather, contains subscriptions 1802–1816.

Book XI. Bound in full leather, contains subscriptions 1812–1824. The bulk of this Book is blank.

Book XII. Bound in full leather, contains subscriptions 1820–1856. This and also Books XIII, XIV., XV., and XVI., contain chiefly printed forms of subscription, down to the present day.

Book XVII. (1852–1883) and Book XVIII. (beginning January, 1884) are bound in vellum, and contain the Acts of the late Bishop and his predecessor.

INVENTORY

OF THE

Act Books of the Dean and Chapter of Llandaff since 1575.

ACT BOOKS OF THE DEAN AND CHAPTER OF LLANDAFF.

The Records belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Llandaff, in the custody of the Chapter Clerk, consist of the following :—

1. A small quarto book, bound in leather, stamped with the inscription :—

"Oratio Episcopi Landavensis Prebendariis in Capitulo congregatis."

And below—

"Consuetudines et ordinationes Ecclesiæ Landavensis." with the date 1575.

The Book contains seven leaves, that is, fourteen pages of parchment, of which twelve pages are written upon ; the remainder of the leaves are of paper, and blank, evidently inserted by the last binder.

Page 1 is almost illegible, but the last words are clearly :—

"Concordat cum originali."

On page 2, which is the back of page 1, begins :—

"Oratio reverendi in Christo patris ac Domini Domini (sic) William Blethin permissione Divina Landavensis Episcopi. Prebendariis suis in Capitulo Landavensi congregatis."

The oration continues on to Page 5, and ends with the words :—

"Ne vos diucius detineam ad articulos procedamus nam quœ habui predicenda dixi."

It is evidently an introduction to the "Consuetudines et ordinationes Ecclesiæ Landavensis" which follow on pages 7 to 14. These begin with the words :—

"Nos Gulielmus . . . . . statuimus et ordinamus, Imprimis . . . . . ."

The Book concludes with the entry that these Rules were accepted in the Chapter House on the last day but one of January, 1575.

2.—Chapter Act Book, Vol. I., is a paper Book, folio, strongly bound in leather, containing about 222 leaves, that is, about 444 pages; very legible and well preserved. The entries, partly Latin and partly English, run from 4th August, 1575, to 26th April, 1722, and are full minutes of the business transacted at each Meeting of the Cathedral Chapter, recorded by the Chapter Clerk or (occasionally) by some other Notary Public. They also give the names, degrees, and offices of all the persons present. There are very few years for which there is no record, and the largest gap is during the Commonwealth. On the back of the leaf numbered 336, we find an autograph certificate that the Book was produced during a law suit "in cancellaria" on the 19th of September, 1690, a similar certificate is found on the fly-leaf at the beginning of the Book, for its production in the Exchequer Court on the 1st October, 1725, and another at the end of the Book dated 15th October, 1782.

It is quite evident that the same handwriting covers the whole period A.D. 1575–1672 (pages 1–218), and a closer inspection discovers the cause. On page 175 we read, in the record for 2nd July, 1664:—

> "The same time and place it was ordered that the booke of Acts of this Chapp. beeing very much decayed and disordered shal bee wholy transcribed verbatim into the new paper booke bought by Doctor Davis Archdeacon of Llandaffe ffor the transcribeinge whereof Mr. Harpur our Chappter Clarke shall have satisfaction or payment by the sheete or otherwise as in reason may be thought fitt and proportionable to the worke by the said Bishop, Archdeacon and Chappter."

> "The same time and place the Bishop and Chapter committed to Dr. Davis Archdeacon of Llandaff uppon his desire certain Acts of this Chappter, viz.:—the Acts made from the yeare 1643 to the yeare 1664 that he might draw breviats of them."

Again on page 187 we read in the record for 5th July, 1666:—

> "Statuerunt et decreverunt ut sequitur, viz.: That ffor as much as the old booke of Acts of this Chappr. beeing decaid and ordered to bee transcribed into this booke and the same transcription compared, it is ordered that the old booke of Acts and also this new transcribed booke of Acts, bee delivered to Dr. Davis, Archdeacon of this Church, that hee and Mr. Gamage the now proctor Generall may compare and determine the same bookes whether there bee any error committed in the said transcription."

That Mr. Randolph Harpur did his work conscientiously seems likely from the following note.

On page 99, among the records for 1624, we read:—

> "Heere a leafe of the transcribed booke was wantinge betweene 146 and 149 upon which leafe it followed thus, viz."

Mr. Harpur's volume is numbered page by page (except page 127) regularly, as far as page 183, where a different ink begins, and after that point the numbering is irregular and confused.

There are three letters of King Charles I. to the Bishop of Llandaff, about Church Leases, on pages 125, 126, and 127, and there are references to the Liber Landavensis on pages 324 and 329. The last portion of the book, that is, from leaf 218 to the end, is in different handwritings, it appears to be "first hand," and contains the original signatures, and (on page 313) even the remains of a seal to an Agreement.

The whole book is of unique value to the Historians of this Diocese.

3.—Certain loose sheets of paper, about 60 in number, formerly wrapped in a parcel, but now arranged between layers of foolscap paper for their better preservation, and for greater ease in examination.

Some of them are still joined together, so that they must be reckoned as 41 lots. Of these 41 lots, 34 correspond verbatim in almost every instance with the entries in the Act Book, Vol. I. viz.:—

Lot 1	with pages	1– 4
Lot 2	,,	6– 7
Lot 3	,,	21– 22
Lot 4	,,	39– 40
Lot 5	,,	47– 48

Lot 27	,,	136–137
Lot 28	,,	137–141
Lot 29	,,	141–142

Lot 30	with pages	161
Lot 31	,,	175–176
Lot 32	,,	177–182
Lot 33	partially	229–230
Lot 34	,,	235

The meaning of this identification becomes apparent when we recollect that the entry of 5th July, 1666, which speaks of the "new transcribed booke of Acts," and orders it to be compared with the old, occurs on page 187 of the Act Book. There is little room for doubt that the loose sheets (except the last two) are the remains of the "Old booke of Acts being decaid."

The last two sheets are probably explained thus, Mr. William James probably used the last pages of the "old booke" as a rough copy book, from which the entries were copied into the Act Book, Vol. I.

Our conclusion as to these sheets can well be tested in the case of Lot 9, evidently part of some book (the thread is still hanging to it) and we have only to compare it with the Act Book to feel sure that the loose sheet is the original, with the autograph signatures, which was copied by Mr. Harpur. From the comparison we may gather his material accuracy as a copyist.

4.—Chapter Act Book, Vol. II. A paper Book, folio, strongly bound in leather, containing about 318 leaves, that is, about 636 pages. The entries run from the 28th June, 1722, to April 10th, 1817.

On the third leaf is a certificate that this Book was produced in the Exchequer Court on 15th October, 1782, signed by the same persons as in Vol. I.

5.—Chapter Act Book, Vol. III., also a paper Book, folio, strongly bound in leather, containing 408 pages, and entries from June 28th, 1817, until January 10th, 1855.

This Book is interesting as a record of the changes made in the Constitution of the Chapter, which ensued upon the death of the Venerable John Probyn, Archdeacon of Llandaff, whose office was distributed as follows :—

William Knight Bruce was installed as (the first) Dean on November 29th, 1843; Thomas Williams, as Archdeacon of Llandaff (in the present sense of the term) on December 30th, 1843; and William Crawley, as the first Archdeacon of Monmouth on March 21st, 1844; each of whom is stated to have succeeded to the office vacated by the death of John Probyn.

This Volume relates the transactions connected with the Restoration of the Cathedral.

6.—Chapter Act Book, Vol. IV. Also a paper Book, folio, containing 535 pages, with entries from March 3rd, 1855, until November 8th, 1892.

7.—Chapter Act Book, Vol. V. The first entry in which is dated February 14th, 1893, and runs to the present year, 1905.

8.—There are five large folio paper Books, bound in leather and labelled "Chapter Leases." They contain copies of the leases granted by the Chapter of their property, in accordance with the order of the Chapter made June 30th, 1640, also occasionally Confirmation of Episcopal Patents. They are rich in names, and should not be neglected by the County historians.

The first Volume contained 255 leaves, that is, 510 pages, and extends from A.D. 1660 to A.D. 1744.

The other Volumes are of about the same size, and extend over the following periods respectively, viz.:—the second 1744 to 1791, the third 1792 to 1825, the fourth 1820 to 1840, and the fifth 1841 to 1866, when the Chapter Estates passed to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners.

There are many packets of papers in the safe, such as account and receipt books. The Chapter Clerk, however, states, none of them are earlier than 1784, and in this he is borne out by the "Inventory of the muniments and documents found to belong to the Dean and Chapter, presented by the then Clerk, Mr. R. W. Griffith, at a meeting of the Chapter, on the 11th day of August, 1885, set out at length in the Act Book for that year."
